God’s Answers to Life’s Questions

“...and how will they hear without a preacher?” Romans 10:14

DigitalBibleStudy.com began broadcasting July 6, 2005. They provide live-streamed and recorded Bible study programs continuously. Jonathan Jenkins, owner of the company, has agreed to show “God’s Answers to Life’s Questions” as many as eight times a week.

“God’s Answers” will air Tuesdays

2 a.m., 2 p.m.,
8 a.m., and 8 p.m.

Fridays

1 a.m., 1 p.m.
6 a.m., 6 p.m.

Brother Jenkins estimates from the email addresses that 2/3 of those who log into digitalbiblestudy.com are not members of the church but are seekers who found the site from a search for Bible studies. Each evening the site also offers opportunities for chatting and asking questions.

All the programming on digitalbiblestudy.com comes from media recordings in churches of Christ. You can hear and view preaching, Bible studies, and Bible discussions.

The DBSN broadcast line-up continues to grow as they obtain material from all across the brotherhood. Currently, they receive material from Georgia, Tennessee, Alabama, Oklahoma, Florida, and North Carolina.

DBSN offers a unique opportunity for everyone who has an internet connection to study the Bible with ministers and others in the church.

All of the material that appears on DBSN is available to for you watch in our archived program area. That portion of the site continues to grow each day and will quickly begin to provide a library of sound gospel teaching unequaled on the web.

Look up DBSN and find out what a great site it is!

Why Evangelize Through Television?

The average family in America watches 7.5 hours of television daily; that is more than they spend listening to the radio, reading the newspaper, or browsing the internet.

Television reaches large audiences, much larger than will read the newspaper at any one time. Nashville is one of the top 30 markets in the United States and serves more than three million people.

How else could we take the gospel to three million people twice a week? Television has provided us an opportunity to take the gospel message to the most people for the least expense.

Television also opens the doors of people that might never open to a visitor knocking. Television goes into the homes of everyone, even those who don’t attend church. This could be their opportunity to hear the gospel!

You can now download every transcript and watch every finished program 24/7 on our own website, tv.God-answers.org.

Please tell a friend about this link and encourage him/her to view one of our old programs in the archive. There may be just the thing they are looking for to help them through their struggle.

You can also download past issues of this monthly newsletter to keep up with the progress of this program.

Speaking to a group of broadcasters, Ted Turner said,

“Delegates to the United Nations are not as important as the people in this room. We’re the ones that determine what the people’s attitudes are. It’s in our hands.”

Ted Turner, an outspoken critic of Christianity, knows the power of television to shape the future of America.

If the devil can use television, why can’t Christians use it to take the good news of salvation?

“God’s Answers to Life’s Questions” may be reprinted for personal or evangelical use. We ask that when quoting articles that credit is given to the author or source of that article.

From our Mailbag

Glad to be able to see your program. This is great....being online. Wonderful job. Just watched part of one today. Actually still on vacation, but had to come in to check email, etc.

Are You On Television?

Recently I stopped by a local fast-food restaurant to get some breakfast on my way to the office. The lady who had served me many times before gave me my coffee and change. I do not know this lady’s name or where she goes to church, but I do know that she watches television on Monday nights.

She quietly said, “Can I ask you a personal question?”

“Of course,” I said.

“Are you a minister?” she asked.

“Most of my life,” I replied.

“Were you on television last night?”

“Yes, I was. I hope you enjoyed the program.”

It’s happening more and more frequently. People who have seen “God’s Answers” are beginning to recognize me.

The other night at a dinner I attended, some good people I had never met asked me, “Are you on television?”. Again I had to admit the truth.

What this means is that people are watching the program. Perhaps they are now just tuning in for a few minutes. Maybe they are browsing with the remote from station to station and happen to catch a glimpse of the program.

Whether you’re an early bird on Sundays or you like to watch a little television before you nod off to sleep, you can benefit from “God’s Answers to Life’s Questions.”

Spread the word! Tell a friend about this program and help us get the word out. Here is an opportunity to share the gospel with a friend. All it takes is an invitation to watch!

Give a man a dollar, and you cheer his heart. Give him a dream, and you challenge his heart. Give him Christ, and you change his heart.

Thanks to our July
